

Maria Rosaria Caputo

Head of Group Rating Desks at Intesa Sanpaolo Group, leading a team in charge of analysing and assigning, according to a range of internal and external methodologies, internal ratings to Bank's clients, being corporates, large corporates, SMEs, financial institutions, as well as structured finance and real estate deals. Dynamic financial executive with 20 years' experience in investment banking in multiple roles (Project and Acquisition Finance, Advisory, Private Equity, Green and Transition Finance, Impact financing) across Europe and Asia.

Member of B20 Indonesia Finance and Infrastructure Task Force (2022) and of B20 Italy Finance and Infrastructure Task Force (2021), coordinating the team supporting the Task Force Chair, being Intesa Sanpaolo CEO, and in charge of the policy paper drafting.

In 2022 she led a cross functional team working with Harvard Business School to test the application of Impact Weighted Account to urban regeneration projects.

In 2020 she has devised and supported the execution of "Programmi Rinascimento" as impact financing programs launched by Intesa Sanpaolo, in partnership with public actors, ONGs and foundations, to accelerate micro and small enterprises' recovery from the Pandemic.

From 2019 member of the board of Matipay, a fintech startup which has developed a new payment system that allows you to purchase online services and products with cash, using the physical network of the banknote readers and coin changers of the vending machines.

MBA graduate from Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and Second Level Master's degree Honors graduate from Bocconi University.