

ROBERTO DI STEFANO

Senior Director
Italy TTS Head
EMEA TTS Head Automotive Sector
Treasury and Trade Solutions (TTS)
Citi

Roberto Di Stefano joined Citibank in 2001 and is currently EMEA TTS Automotive sub-sector Head and TTS Head for Corporate and Public Sector in Italy, providing local direct and line-of-sight management for a team of 10 persons. In his role, Roberto is responsible for:

- the global TTS sales origination across a portfolio of large corporate and public sector Italian and multinationals companies
- the Italian franchise TTS strategy and product development
- define and implement TTS marketing strategies within the EMEA Automotive sector.

Previously, Roberto was a Relationship Manager in the Citi Corporate and Investment Banking (CIB) European Foreign Subsidiaries division, responsible for revenue growth and business origination across the full CIB product platform for Foreign Subsidiaries. He was nominated a Credit Officer of Citigroup in 2006. Prior to that, he was a Banker for Energy, Power and Telecom Clients in CIB Milan, supporting Senior Bankers in credit and marketing activities.

Before joining Citi, Roberto worked for Marsh McLennan in Milan where he was Senior Consultant in the Marsh Risk Financing Consulting division. and Consultant in the Marsh Private Equity and M&A Group.

Roberto Di Stefano holds a degree in Economics, Faculty of Banks and Insurance Administration, Università Cattolica di Milano.